

Green Valley Library's Teen Service Club

Green Valley Library's Teen Service Club offers teenagers from all over the Henderson and Las Vegas area the opportunity to get out into their community and make a positive impact through service. Teen Service Club members will plan and participate in "hands on" direct service volunteer opportunities led by Green Valley's staff members at a variety of partnering nonprofit agencies in Henderson and Las Vegas.

Ideally, teens will plan and coordinate a Teen Service Club project each month, and members can choose the projects they prefer to do. In keeping with our flexible volunteer model, teens can volunteer for whatever projects they choose. There is no on-going commitment required. Examples of Teen Service Club projects include: serving meals to the hungry at a homeless shelter, building or enhancing a community garden, helping people with disabilities, sorting donations at a food bank, and more.

By participating in Green Valley Library's Teen Service Club you will benefit in many ways:

- ❖ Learn about yourself, social issues and your community.
- ❖ Develop leadership skills and have a better understanding of good citizenship.
- ❖ Improve your college applications and résumé while having a positive impact on your local community.
- ❖ Help you meet your school's service requirements.
- ❖ Share new experiences, see new places, and meet new people.

Requirements:

- Must be between the ages of 13-18.
- Submit an application to Green Valley Library.
- Have reliable transportation that can take you to Green Valley Library for monthly Club meetings and also to the various service sites.
